

Since March 2005, the Foundation successfully implemented education program - "Education of adult population as a guarantee of sustainable development", which covers a number of key areas (law, economics, medicine, the role of the community and its relations with the authorities ...).